

Consulting Services

Legal nurse consultant

- Case review
- Expert opinion/witness
- Research

Guardianship

- Legal guardianship services for incapacitated persons or those with limited cognitive function

Educational consultant

- Keynote speaker
- Seminars or workshops (see Educational Programs form for examples)
- Specialties: Rehabilitation and gerontological nursing

Clinical consultation

- Complex care management
- Long-term care planning

Dr. Mauk is an award-winning author/editor. She has written and/or edited 8 books and numerous articles and book chapters. Her consulting experience spans more than 22 years and includes legal nurse consulting, guardianship of persons with disabilities, educational programs and keynote speaking. Dr. Mauk is both an educational and clinical expert in rehabilitation and gerontological nursing. She has served in leadership roles at the national level and has a passion for helping older adults age in place.

Fee schedule and CV available upon request.